

Donald Maley Spirit of Excellence Outstanding Undergraduate Student Citation

The Foundation for Technology and Engineering Education (FTEE) proudly supports the Donald Maley Spirit of Excellence Outstanding Undergraduate Student Citation. The citation, which is named for Dr. Donald Maley, one of the profession's "Distinguished Fellows" and a founder of the Foundation for Technology and Engineering Education, recognizes excellence in undergraduate-level scholarship and leadership potential.

Each Institutional Member may choose one outstanding undergraduate student from its program to be recognized at the ITEEA Annual Conference. The recognition ceremony is a feature of the Foundation for Technology and Engineering Education Maley Spirit of Excellence Breakfast.

Requirements: Only ITEEA Institutional Member universities will be eligible to participate. Undergraduate students must be ITEEA members at the time their name is submitted and at the time of the award. Undergraduate students must be enrolled in the institution's undergraduate program at the time of nomination. Recipients are encouraged to attend the ITEEA Annual Conference. The Institutional Member will designate the student to be honored.
