

Happy New Semester! Time is running out to submit your application to be a National Officer! Make sure to submit one before time runs out!!

Election nominations will be accepted until February 2nd at 11:59 P.M. When deciding if you would like to be an International Officer, remember that there are different positions. There are five positions, four electable positions. The positions include Reporter, Secretary, Vice-President, President-Elect, and President. If you would like to be President, you will first be President-Elect.

The International Officer election nominations will require you to fill out a student/university agreement form, International Officer nomination form, two letters of recommendation, one page resume, campaign video, and an optional photo of self. This information can be found on our website, www.teeca.org under the 'Officer Elections' tab. After you have filled out all the required information, email your application to Frasier Dew, International President at dewf@uni.edu.

International Officer nomination deadline: February 2nd at 11:59 P.M.

Bylaws Rewrite: The National Officer Team has worked hard and has come up with a few changes to our TEECA By laws.

The changes should have be read over in upcoming month (January-February). We ask that you provide us with feed back following your club reading of them. (February-March). In March and April, the National Officer Team will read your feedback and make any necessary adjustments. In April, at the National Conference, we will formally vote on the new bylaws.

- Upcoming Events and Deadlines:
- February 2nd: Officer Election Forms Due
- March 20th: National ITEEA Conference Registration Deadline
- April 12th-14th: National ITEEA Conference, Atlanta, GA
